FIRE DESTROYS FARM HOME. FAMILY NEEDS HELP.

Fire from a burning chimney set fire to the John Canfield home in Beaver Creek Tuesday of last week, burning it to the ground, together with its contents. Nothing was saved and it leaves the family entirely destitute for household furnishings and clothing. If there are families here who have home equipment that is not being used, here would be an opportunity to help where help is needed. Just phone Mrs. Jean Hanson, No. 7673, or let the Canfields know direct, and articles will be called for. Let's help these young people to get another start.

Council Buys Lighting System

WILL SAVE VILLAGE NEARLY $100 PER MONTH

The village council at its meeting last Monday night concluded negotiations for the purchase of our boulevard lighting system from the Michigan Public Service Company. The purchase price was $3,600.

In the past the Company owned the lighting system including posts, globes, wiring, etc., and the service charge for lights included the rental cost of this system.

From the time of installation of the system, June 15th 1925 to December 1, 1935 the Village paid the Company the sum of $5,618.46 for lights and rentals. Last summer an effort was made by the village council to purchase the system and thus eliminate the rental charge. In the negotiations the Company wanted the sum of $3,800 for the system. The council offered the sum of $3,600. Since then the council has been making fire while efforts were being made to consummate the deal. Monday night the matter was settled when the council raised its offer to $3,600.

Lights, and the system rental amounted to about $115.33 per month. Now that the system is owned by the village the lighting cost will be about $26.00 per month, which is a big saving to the taxpayers. Besides the Company granted the ownership period to begin on December 1st of last year, which up to October 1st of this year would give us a saving of $72.00. It is estimated that by owning the boulevard system there would be a saving to the village annually of $1,048.76.

Winter Sports Meeting Tonight

WILL ELECT OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS

Everyone Interested Urged To Attend

Tonight, at the Court House, at 8:00 o'clock, there will be a meeting for the purpose of completing an organization for the purpose of setting up a sound and stable form of administration. A set of bylaws have been drawn up for consideration of those present and a new board of directors and officers will be elected. The plan is to organize as a non-profit corporation.

Everyone interested in winter sports, and that means just about everyone in Grayling, should be present at this meeting. It is of vital importance to the people of Grayling and surrounding region, and to treat the matter lightly would indicate the lack of interest in the welfare of the community. It is expected to elect a directorate of about 150 persons, and takes in a lot of our business men, industrialists and workers. It's our affair and it is hoped that there will be a very large attendance. Anyone not actively interested in winter sports but have the interest of the community at heart will be just as welcome as the most enthusiastic participant. Don't miss the meeting—Court House tonight—Thursday, Oct. 4th. This meeting means business. Come out and see.

"LAIGS DO YOUR STUFF"

H. J. Hiedemann of Higgins Lake region had a thrilling experience last Saturday when he became mixed up with a pair of bear cubs and their mother.

While out riding with his wife and Harold Buck they ran onto a couple of bear cubs. Nearby was the mother bear and when she saw the intruders she unsharped the cubs ahead of her and followed behind with one eye on the visitors. The cubs were running into the woods. Soon after there appeared another cub bear and Mr. Hiedemann got out of the auto and gave chase—but he didn't go far before he again was confronted by the mother bear. The latter reared upon its hind legs and let out an angry snarl and when the pursuer stopped the mother bear came down upon all four feet and started after him. Did he run? Well I guess. We can imagine him saying, "Laigs do your stuff!" He reached the car ahead of the mother bear and slammed the door in her face just in time to escape its sharp claws that were bared ready to operate. Mr. Hiedemann admits that he was "scared stiff."

Welfare Workers Would Start Work

The welfare clients of the Village of Grayling have requested the Village Council to petition Dr. Huber, state administrator of the PCHA to request a project in the Village of Grayling, as they are willing and anxious to go to work.

It is a source of great satisfaction that the welfare clients have put their loyalty to Grayling above their selfish desires and we congratulate them upon their attitude.

The Council at its meeting Monday night passed a resolution in accordance with the above request, and forwarded same to Dr. Huber, the state administrator. Francis Roush, state field representative, and Mrs. Laura Olson, local welfare administrator.

It is expected that the village of Grayling will be granted work on several local projects will start soon.

Waterpockets

Ordinarily, waterpockets occur only in tropical waters, for the reason that the air in the tropics is always warm and moisture-laden, and ready to condense upon meeting a sudden cool wind. However, waterpockets have been reported in the warm Gulf stream in northern seas. These spots are believed to occur when cold wintry blasts from the land pass out over the sea and meet the warm Gulf stream. Waterpockets last only a few minutes and are believed to be not dangerous to a ship, even when the spray is directly in the path of the ship.

SCHOOL AFFAIRS

Softball

A three-game softball series has been arranged between G.H.S. and our neighbors on the north, Frederic. The first tilt was played at Frederic Friday afternoon. Coach Cornell gathering up his men here at 3:15 and cutting last hour classes to insure plenty of daylight playing time.

Altogether they had very little practice together this fall, but boys played a fast game, piling up a 15-point lead in the first four innings before giving their opponents a single score.

A large part of the credit for our overwhelming 15 to 4 victory goes to Brock who, in the line innings which he pitched, allowed only two hits with one run. Chalkley, who later substituted for Brock, was with at least another five men, but allowed only one hit in two innings.

Brady and Smith featured with fielding plays. Smith made a nice running catch to retire the side with the bases loaded.

Fredrick has a large and roomy ball grounds which seemed to give our fellows an itch to lean on the horseshoe. Dornier set the example in the first inning by slugging in a home run with two men on base. Later on Chalkley collected two triples and Borchers and Smock collected one apiece.

The date for the next game is undetermined, but it will be played here soon.

Plans Complete For E. M. T. Meet

With 2500 invitations enroute to tourist-minded residents of East Michigan and acceptance coming in rapidly, indications point to another successful joint meeting of the East Michigan Tourist Association and the NorthEastern Michigan Development Bureau, scheduled for the afternoon and evening of Tuesday, October 9.

The meeting officially opens in the afternoon when the members of the two organizations gather to name their officers for the coming year. The Tourist Association election is slated for 2:30 following the Development Bureau meeting at 1:30. At 3:30 combined groups will get under way in the same location to attack problems pertinent to the resort and tourist problem in East Mich.

Reservations for the dinner in the evening are limited and acceptance are being filed in the order in which they are received.

Guided by the entertaining vocabulary of Master of Ceremonies Mike Gorman, genial Flint newspaperman whose presence at Log Office functions has become a permanent feature, the program for the dinner will include several of the state's leading figures.

For several years following its birth, the meeting and dinner were strictly stag, but with the increasing number of women members in both the association and bureau "Tables for Ladies" were set aside and this year is expected to find no small group of the fair sex in attendance.

The evening's entertainment will make way at 8 p. m. at the Hotel Grayling where a reception will be given to the speakers and neighbors from East Michigan sections other than their own. The dinner begins at 8:30.

Recounts Delaying Official Canvass

Recounts in three Congressional and one State Senatorial districts are delaying the official canvass of the primary election. Until recounts are completed, the vote cannot be tabulated.

In the Fourteenth Congressional district, the question of jurisdiction of the recount has been raised. Under the law, there is some doubt whether the recount should be conducted by the department of state or by the Wayne County Clerk.

700 VIEW DEER HERD

700 persons viewed the deer herd in the Oshtemo Game Refuge in a single week in August. The herd has grown from two to thirty in four years.

Though they are not tame, the deer come nightly to feed. They present a picturesque scene to patient visitors, many of whom have waited hours for the sight of the velvet-clad animals feeding in their native habitat.

Public Approves Obligation Bonds

A mass meeting was held in the school auditorium last night, called by the village council, for the purpose of placing before the taxpayers the situation of the waterworks question as it is now before the council for decision.

Last November the people voted on the matter of bonding the village for $37,000, to which amount the PWA of Washington would contribute about $10,000 for the purpose of rebuilding our waterworks system. At that time the proposal carried by a large majority. The type of bond would make all property owners equally liable for the bonds in case the bonds were defaulted.

Last spring the PWA decided that that was the wrong type of bond and asked that we vote upon a revenue bonding proposition. This was done at another expensive special election. Now the PWA comes back with the information that the last proposal was not desirable, but that the first election was sufficient but requested the council to again approve it after which the PWA would accept it.

The council had full authority to approve the matter without presenting it to the people but the members wished to have the taxpayers have full knowledge of what is going on and took this way to place the matter before the people.

The several phases of the question were fully explained by Mayor Clippert and by Marie F. Nalliet, councilman and city attorney. Many questions arose and were liberally discussed. After all seemed satisfied a vote of confidence was given the members of the council, together with recommendations that approval be given to the acceptance of the general obligation bonds that are being requested by the PWA.

GIVE FAREWELL FOR REV. AND MRS. SALMON

Bidding farewell to Rev. and Mrs. H. J. Salmon, the Adult Bible class and the Board of Nicholson Memorial church arranged a gathering in the church parlors last Thursday night. The evening was spent socially and Rev. and Mrs. Salmon presented with a beautiful set of china dishes as a token of esteem.

Again Monday evening the Epworth League gave a party, presenting them with a pen and pencil set.

Both were very pleasant affairs.

4,000 Auto Titles Await Owners

There are 4,000 automobile owners in Michigan who do not have certificates of title for their cars. That many titles are being held in a department of state unclaimed file, after being returned by postal authorities because of improper addresses.

In many cases the car owner has moved and failed to leave a forwarding address. In Detroit, transposition of numbers of street addresses causes many titles to be returned to the department. Owners of cars, who have not received their titles, should write the title division of the Department of State.

LOCAL PCA CHIEF ENTHUSIASTIC OVER LOAN PROSPECTS

Returning from a conference in St. Paul attended by the presidents of all of the 88 Production Credit Associations of the 7th Farm Credit district, Otto V. Klein, Vice President of the West Branch Production Credit Association, says he is enthusiastic over prospects for making this association a permanent and useful lending institution for the farmers of Crawford County and the other territory within this association, which includes Ugenaw, Oscode, Alcona, Roscommon, Isocore and Gladwin counties.

Under the new order just issued by the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank the West Branch Production Credit Association is authorized to make loans up to $500.00 without first submitting papers to Federal Intermediate Credit Bank. This means that the farmer may make an application with Mr. Frank Sales of Grayling, Michigan, and as soon as the inspection is made and the papers signed by the applicant the money is available in cash, thus enabling the West Branch Production Credit Association to close loans within two or three days from the time the application is made, and in some cases the same day application is made.

IN MEMORY OF A BABY

By ANNE CAMPBELL

DO not know why angel wings should flutter near me in the night;
 Then swaying, as a starling sings, I wait for eternal flight.

I do not know why baby hands should cling one moment to my own.
 Then reach for the celestial lands, And leave me weeping all alone.

Perhaps by heaven's outer gate There is a tiny window.
 Who waits, as I have learned to wait, To hear the tolling of a bell.

I longed to keep a little soul From this world's sadness, strife and pain.
 And weep that by the merry maid, Stolen, there waits a little child.

Man's Heart Stopped, Stomach Gas Causes

When a man was killed by a car in the town of Grayling, Michigan, the cause of death was found to be a gas in the stomach which had caused the heart to stop.

Discovery of Dwarfs of Congo

There is in the Congo forest a race of dwarfs who are the smallest people on earth. The pygmies of the Congo forest discovered by Stanley in 1879 averaged four feet in height, some a writer in the Montreal Herald, but the average stature of the Santo dwarfs is only three feet six inches, judging by the few specimens seen and measured by white men.

Hardly anything is known of their mode of living, as they have been forest fastnesses. To follow them would be to court death, for they impregnate the tips of their tiny arrows, projected through blowpipes, with some unknown vegetable poison. It is so deadly that the slightest scratch from one speedily proves fatal. Moreover, these little people are intensely hostile to strangers and shoot them on sight. The more civilized natives, dwelling along the seashore, assert that they are cannibals.

Ethnologists are trying to discover how the Santo dwarfs managed to reach their present home. For they are an inland-dwelling race; true forest pygmies. They own no canoes and have no knowledge of navigation. Yet obviously they have come from some other part of the tropics, for in features they are similar to the African pygmies and quite unlike the Melanesian peoples by whom they are surrounded.

Southern Arabia Yields

Incense, Myrrh and Aloe
 Few of the present day know even the name of this land. Yet once it was rich, with a highly developed culture. One of the highroads of the Old World, the trade routes from India and Persia to Egypt and Syria, and to the other countries around the Mediterranean, ran through Hadramaut (southern coast of the Arabian peninsula), and it supplied its own fragrant contribution to that ancient world commerce—a contribution not great in extent, but vast in significance, says a writer in the National Geographic Magazine. Incense trees grew along the barren, rocky plateaus and in the scorching heat of the wadies (dry river beds). And woe to him who, uninitiated, tried to collect the valuable product, for, sooner or later he perished from thirst and exhaustion.

The gathering of incense, myrrh and aloe remained a work for those trained in the hard and difficult art of traveling over the endless plains of stone, and through the wadies, with their perpendicular walls and deadly heat that drives man to despair. These products of wondrous odor, destined for the service of God and the dead, carry with them something of the mystery of their land of origin.

Very Old City in Bolivia

When the Spaniards entered the region now known as Bolivia they found a very old city, Tiwanacu, near Lake Titicaca. The huge stone blocks of the buildings were held in place with great silver and copper staples. Plunder being the object of the Spaniards, they pried these metal staples loose and carried them off, leaving the massive walls to topple. It is difficult to judge the age of the city.

The ancient Tiwanacuans used a sun dial, and a German scientist and astronomer has made calculations to determine how far the axis of the earth has shifted since their sun dial stood in its proper relation to the poles. At first he used a formula adopted by the French Society of Astronomers, and he obtained 12,000 years as the city's age.

Marine Hospitals

The division of marine hospitals and relief is a branch of the United States public health service. This organization had its origin in the Marine hospital service, which was established by an act of congress approved July 16, 1796. In 1902 the name of the organization was changed to the public health and marine hospital service, and in 1912 changed again to the United States public health service. At first marine hospitals were financed through a tax of 20 cents per month, which was later increased to 40 cents, deducted from the wages of each seaman and collected by the collector of customs. Subsequently this was replaced by a tonnage tax, and finally, about 90 years ago, by direct appropriations out of the United States treasury.

"Griggle" Apple

The "griggle" apple still survives in the villages of the west of England, but elsewhere it is almost unknown. It had its origin in the old harvest custom of farmers opening their apple orchards to the villagers after the crop had been gathered. It was the practice of farmers to leave on the trees all the small and unmarketed fruit. On the appointed day for the "grigging," as it was called, the villagers would come to the orchards, and the farmers would hand out the "griggle" apples. In good seasons the "griggle" apples were small and tart, but in bad seasons they were large and sweet.

Question Box

By ED WYNN

Dear Mr. Wynn:
 Can you tell me what is most useful to us—the "moon" or the "sun"?

Yours truly,
 S. TRONEMER.
 Answer: The moon is, because it gives more light at night when it is so dark; the sun shines only in the daytime, when we don't need it.

Dear Mr. Wynn:
 I bought a new pair of shoes. When I got home I found I couldn't get them on my feet. What shall I do?

Yours truly,
 I. M. PERTURBED.
 Answer: They are probably like all new shoes. You won't be able to get them on till you've worn them awhile.

Dear Mr. Wynn:
 I am a boy, nine years old. My father says crickets are more wonderful than John Philip Sousa, Irving Berlin and Paul Whiteman. Why does he say that?

Truly yours,
 B. FLAT.
 Answer: Your father means that crickets make music with their hind legs, and that's more than any of those fellows can do.

Dear Mr. Wynn:
 I hear that in HINDUSTAN they don't have dentists. The people take out their teeth with their fingers. Don't you think that is wonderful?

Sincerely,
 EYMAN FANE.
 Answer: Nothing is wonderful about that. We have thousands of people in this country who take their teeth out with their fingers, every night before going to bed.

Dear Mr. Wynn:
 What will be the difference between present times and the days when women will have all equal rights?

Yours truly,
 I. C. A. CONSPIRACY.
 Answer: At the present time women have their faces on coins, their hands in men's pockets, their eyes on men's sons. Equal rights will give them the opportunity to put their "noses" in MEN'S BUSINESS. That's all.

Dear Mr. Wynn:
 I have been keeping company with a traveling salesman. Last night he asked me to marry him. He said he would always love me from February to May and September to December. What does he mean by promising to love me only in certain months of the year?

Yours truly,
 HUGH SHUDNO.
 Answer: He's traveling the other months.

"Little Stories for Bedtime" by Thornton W. Burgess

PETER DISCOVERS SOMETHING STARTLING
 NOT far from the Old Orchard grew a thorn-tree which Peter often passed. He never had paid any particular attention to it. One morning he stopped to rest under it. Happening to look up, he saw a most astonishing and startling sight. Fastened on the sharp thorns of one of the branches were three grasshoppers, a big moth, two big caterpillars, a lizard, a small mouse, and a young English sparrow. "Do you wonder that Peter thought he must be dreaming? He couldn't!"

Sitting on his doorstep under the big apple tree in the far corner of the Old Orchard he found Johnny Chuck, and at once hurried to tell him the strange news. Johnny didn't interrupt once. When Peter had finished his story, Johnny quite frankly told him that never had he heard of such a thing, and that he thought Peter must be dreaming and didn't know it.

Now, Peter knew that he hadn't been dreaming. He knew that he had seen with his very own eyes that dreadful sight in the thorn-tree and he grew quite indignant with Johnny Chuck for doubting him. But Johnny persisted in refusing to believe and repeated that he was certain Peter must have dreamed it.

"You're wrong, Johnny Chuck. You are altogether wrong. Peter hasn't been dreaming at all," said skimmer the Swallow, who lives in a hole in the tree just above Johnny Chuck's house and had been sitting where he overheard everything.

TO HAVE FOR DESSERT

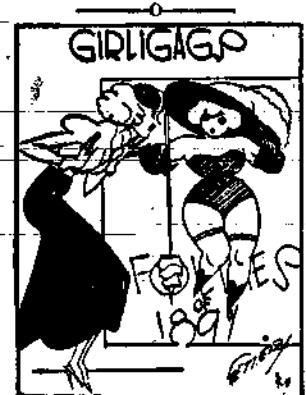

THIS is the season of the year when simple, light desserts appeal to those who prepare them and to those who enjoy eating them. The wealth of fruits which are in the market in the late summer and early fall supply many pleasing desserts with but little preparation. Fruits to be served at the table should be well chilled, garnished with appropriate greens when possible and arranged in as dainty and appealing manner as is convenient.

Fruit Charlotte.

Soak one tablespoon of gelatin in two tablespoons of cold water and dissolve in one-fourth cup of scalding milk. Scald three-quarters of a cup of milk and one cup of sugar. Add to this the gelatin mixture and stir until cool. Whip one pint of cream and add it to the gelatin, fold in one dozen crumbled macaroons, one-half cup of candied cherries cut into bits, two slices of candied pineapple shredded, one-half cup of blanched almonds shredded and browned in the oven, one-half cup of pecan meats broken into pieces and one teaspoon of vanilla. Pour into a mold, allow it to become firm and serve with cream, plain or whipped.

Banana Ice-Box Cake.

Put one cup of milk, one tablespoon of butter, one teaspoon of cornstarch, one-half cup of sugar, and three beaten yolks in a double boiler, cook over hot water until smooth and thick. Remove from the water, add a teaspoon of vanilla and the stiffly beaten egg whites. Cover the bottom and sides of a spring form with split lady fingers, round side down, slice four bananas to cover the lady fingers, then cover with half of the filling and repeat, then finish with the top of lady fingers, with the rounded sides up like the spokes of a wheel. Keep in the ice chest 12 hours before serving. Decorate with whipped cream and serve.

"Now funny those days of the 'Gay Nineties' must have been," says modern Minnie, "whose chorus girls and piano movers were the same size."

YOU AWAY?

By ANNE CAMPBELL

YOU'VE gone away? Ah, no, you are still here
In every room that treasures your sweet grace.
I linger in your chair and feel you near.

Your mirror seems to miss your absent face.
The curtains meet the breeze, their creamy lace
Waving like phantom arms to bid you come.

Your loved books wait in their accustomed place.
Outside there is the town's familiar hum.

You've gone away? Ah, no, you could not go
Beyond my heart's pavilion. You are there
With the bright lamp of friendship aglow.

Sending its beams to light me up life's stair.
You will be with me whether joy or care
Is my companion in the days to be.

Absent or present, you are every where!
You are away, perhaps, but not from me!

Tennis is a Royal Game;

Americans Good Players

Tennis may well be called a royal game, for it has been popular with various kings of England and France, and it can be said to have originated as a game with the Greeks and Romans, who played it with a peculiarly shaped racket something like a croquet mallet or a hockey stick with a net attached.

The word "tennis" is probably derived from the French word "Tenne", meaning "Take it! Play!"

In A. D. 1300 the game was known as "la boule", and throughout that century it was played all over France by the highest in the land. Indeed, Louis X died through a chill contracted after playing, and Charles VI of France watched it being played from the room in which he was confined during his attack of insanity.

A strange page in the history of tennis is found in the statement that although there were 230 courts in Paris alone during the sixteenth century, there were only six courts in the whole of France in 1870, so much had its popularity decreased. Strangely enough, although Americans are perhaps the finest tennis players in the world, the game was not introduced into the country until 1890 and was not really popular until in recent years.

Genuine Panama Hats

Genuine Panama hats are made of the young leaves of the Jipijapa plant, or stemless screw pine, which is especially abundant in Ecuador, where these hats are made almost exclusively. Locally this fiber is known as paja toquilla. Panama hats are woven by hand, and work on them is done only in the early morning or evening hours when the dew is out. Consequently it takes from two to three months to make one hat. Panama hats are also made in Peru and Colombia, but not in large quantities. Panama hats received their name from the fact that they were introduced to the commercial world through Panama; they are not made there.

Narrow Head Not Healthy

The head that is narrow from ear to ear usually has the accompaniment of a body that is not up to health par. says a writer in the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. Such subjects will often tend to be narrow in mental scope and consequently egotistical. They will make contacts with people poorly and tend toward self-concentration. They will be loyal, conscientious and particular in detail. They will incline to be mental rather than physical in their desires.

International Date Line

The international date line is an imaginary line approximately 180 degrees east of Greenwich at which point a traveler gains a day going east-bound and loses a day going west-bound. Sailing eastward a ship moves with the revolution of the earth; thus her course makes her gain time, while sailing westward against the movement of the earth lengthens her time. The additional day gained when traveling east bound is called "antipodes day."

Persia's Capital

Tehran, the capital, is the embodiment of modern Persia. Not unlike some American western cities which grew up in an oil boom, Tehran has modern buildings and wide streets, copied from western models. There are more European-style buildings, and the people dress in European style, with few vestiges of the old Persia to be seen. It is a city of commerce and government buildings, with a social life of European type.

THE VINE

By ANNE CAMPBELL

THE vine is trying vainly to climb high
Upon the smooth boards of my little shack.
The sun is peering from an azure sky.
But there is something here that holds it back.
Nothing to climb on, that's the rub. It fails.
Back on the brick of the foundation walls.

Today I'll buy a trellis for my vine.
And guide its tendrils up the strong white wall.
Reflecting as I do on the divine
And lofty way God labors for our good.
Giving us room to climb to heights above
Upon the golden trellis of his love.

They Know It Pays To Advertise

S. B. Evans sells more groceries than any other merchant in Honey Grove, Texas. He has run a full page ad every week for 114 consecutive weeks in the Signal-Citizen of Honey Grove. Five years ago he began running a quarter-page every week; a year later he jumped to half page, and did not miss an issue for two years. Then he went to a full page.

Evans has made money against all kinds of competition, and in spite of difficulties of the times.

C. W. Johnson, merchant in Oakland, Nebraska, declared in a speech:

I have been in business 37 years and seldom miss an issue of the local paper with an ad of some kind.

I believe the constant spitting of a machine gun does more executing than the occasional boom of a big Bertha. Its spot-shot gets results. So it is with advertising; the small ad run every week is better for results than the large ad run hit or miss. Consecutive advertising gets the business.

Now is the time to advertise our wares and get the public to start buying. There are all kinds of advertising schemes and I have debbed in them all, but the advertising in the local newspaper is best and gives largest results for money spent.

Put more time in writing your ads and then talk it over with the printer. It pays in the long run to spend this extra time.

Create a desire to possess, in your ad, and it will get the business.

If you had a whole bushel of chain links it would not pull a load. Put them together in a continuous chain and you have a strong and powerful thing with which to pull a load. So it is with advertising. Link your ads together, run them in a continuous string week after week, and you will produce results.

Are you getting your share of Business?
Advertising in the AVALANCHE is a wise investment.

While away Mr. Beckman purchased a new up-to-date chair and fixtures, including an up-to-date electric sign. He intends teaching his step-son Harvey Reagan the barber trade, as at times he has more work than he can conveniently handle.

Now is a nice time to set out pansy plants. Select a place where they get the sunshine but a short time in the morning. They want cold ground to do well. Those setting out plants now will be rewarded with plenty of blossoms this fall, and if they dig down under the snow next winter they will find those pretty face-like blossoms looking up and smiling at them.

A lovely birthday dinner was given at Whispering Pines, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Skingley, Wednesday evening, in honor of the former's 51st anniversary. A Hungarian lace cloth covered the table which was set in green crystal with place cards of birch bark marking the places for 16 guests. A three-course chop suey dinner was served. Following dinner Bunco was enjoyed, with prizes going to Pauline Reohn and Guy Roddick for high scores and congratulations to Mrs. Roddick and Boy Millikin. Mr. and Mrs. Pete Brophy of Brighton were out-of-town guests.

Several ladies including Mrs. R. D. Connine, Mrs. Joseph McLeod, Mrs. Nikolai Schjots, Mrs. Charles Febr, Mrs. William McNeven and Grace Nelson drove to Cheboygan last Friday to surprise Mrs. Mary Burt—a former old-Grayling resident on her 74th birthday. When they arrived there they found that Mrs. Burt was in the hospital at Petoskey, so they went to Petoskey. The ladies brought with them a lovely birthday cake and before going to her home lit the candles on it. Other gifts from the Eastern Star Chapter of Grayling, of which she is a member, and gifts from each lady were all presented to her. Although Mrs. Burt was in the hospital she said it was the happiest birthday she had ever had.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Coming spent the week-end in Detroit.

Charles Johnson, who is employed as liquor inspector in Saginaw, spent the week end visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Johnson.

Mrs. Frank Matson arrived Saturday from Charlevoix to spend the winter here joining Mr. Matson, who is the pharmacist at the Central Drug store.

William Woods is home from Detroit visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Moss Woods and brought with him his bride, who was formerly Miss Frances Smith before their marriage on Sept. 20th. Tuesday evening Mrs. Woods visited a number of friends to a miscellaneous shower at her home to honor the young bride. A pleasant evening was spent.

Emil Kraus and son Emil were home from Detroit over the week end. Emil Jr., a member of the 24 Class from Grayling High school, has entered the University of Detroit, where he is a freshman in the college of arts and science. He is working for his Bachelor of Philosophy degree. Emil was an honor student of Grayling high school so we predict much success for him in his college endeavors.

Booster night for the Crawford County Grange was well attended Saturday night. There were seventy people present to enjoy the program by the children and the talks and readings by the older ones. A comedy reading by Lucille Cady, reader and Frances and Junior Corwin and Goldie and Ervin J. Cady as guests added much to the program, as did also Donald Corwin with his guitar and Lawrence Cady with a harmonica. Supper was followed by visiting and music by George Amda.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lovely entertained a party of friends over the week end. Among the guests were Mrs. Walter Friesel and Ray Gilson of Saginaw; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kessel; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd McCoy; the Misses Makel and Ethel LaChance, Genevieve Goddard, Adeline Sirmeyer, Elvora Guire, Marion Miller, Ruth Lavietore, Marie Bryssoff, the Messrs. Archie and Cyril Lavietore, Erwin Marin, Oscar LaChance, Reggie Lesperance, all of Bay City. Dinner was served at the reservation.

Rev. E. W. Zoller, new pastor of Michigan Memorial church, and family arrived Monday and are now getting nicely settled in the parsonage. In his family, besides Mrs. Zoller, are George Elliott, age 10 and Mary Jane, age 7. They come here from Pontiac where Rev. Zoller conducted services in two churches, preaching four sermons on Sundays. He is looking forward to a pleasant pastorate in Grayling and it strikes us, is going to fit nicely into our community. Services will be as usual next Sunday with regular church service at 11:00 a. m. and Sunday school at 10:00. It would be inspiring to our new pastor, we believe, if our church-goers would make an effort to attend the services next Sunday and regularly thereafter.

Monday night a crowd of Legionnaires and members of the Auxiliary drove to West Branch, responding to an invitation to attend a joint installation of the American Legion and Auxiliary there. The installation ceremonies were presided over by Mrs. Earl Dawson, of West Branch, district committeewoman for the Auxiliary and Leslie Stonehouse, of Bay City, district committeewoman for the Post. Lunch was enjoyed, followed by a dance and it was the wee hours of the morning before many of the Grayling delegation returned home. West Branch made royal hosts and Grayling will be looking for another invitation to visit them soon again, as everyone had such a good time. Those who made the trip included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Decker, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Rasmussen, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Jorgensen, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Laurant, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Rowlett, Mrs. Carl Nelson, Mrs. Neal Matthews, Mrs. Albert Kathan, Calvin Church, Jack Matson and Harold Edwards.
